[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

EASTERN DATES TO DECEMBER 30

German Reinforcements

LONDON Dec 30 —The German forces on their way to France number 100,000

Germans Occupy Mt Avron.

DRESDEN, Dec 30 —The Crown Prince of Saxony in a dispatch to King John, says that when his troops entered, they found Mont Avron works deserted The French had removed the guns to Noissy The German batteries were then ordered to open fire upon Noissy Merrian and Boney. The French subsequently withdrew from the village of Rosny along the road to Paris

German Vessels Captured—Shells Thrown into Paris.

LONDON, Dec 30 —A French ironclad is reported off Roches Point. Many German prizes are anchored off Solgan

A Tribune cable dispatch, dated Margnley, 28th, says a dozen shells were sent yesterday inside of Paris into La Villette and Beauville, from Rainey, at a range of 7,000 yards

French Resuming the Offensive

LILLE, Dec 30 —Generals Bourbaki and Chanzy have resumed the offensive Uhlans are scouring the county between Donai Cambrai and Arras

The French artillery fire at Mezieres, was very effective, and has so far prevented the besiegers from erecting batteries

Recruits for the French Service.

CHERBOURG, Dec. 30 —Recruits are daily arriving Large numbers will be drilled and equipped before joining the army in the field

War News by way of London.

LONDON, Dec 30 —The Germans invested the fortress of Peronne in the Department of Somme on Wednesday, after some sharp fighting

A Prussian dispatch reports that Colonel Bottenstein, commanding a detachment of six companies of foot, two squadrons of cavalry and two guns, was surrounded by the French near Mont Toisse After a desperate fight he cut his way out, losing only 100 of his men and taking 240 prisoners.

General Chancy is about to resume the offensive, and is moving on St Calais Gen Werder is retreating on Vesoul Prince Frederic Charles is concentrating at Orleans

There are fresh reports that propositions have been made for peace to Gambetta

Dispatches from French Sources.

BORDEAUX, Dec 30 —Auxeal, Gray and Vesault, will be vacated by the French before the advance The French, under orders of Generals Bressolier, Bemes and Garibaldi are to march direct upon Paris As they advance the inhabitants will hasten to join the ranks This army is rapidly increasing

Smaller towns now resist the enemy, as in the case of Tours, which, through the combat at Monas was not occupied At Argent the Prussians were repulsed by the population

BESANCON Dec 28 —The Prussians assaulted Belfort again and were repulsed with loss In the assault on the 21st they had fifty wagons full of wounded, which were taken to Chatenois When they arrived there nearly all were dead—frozen.

HAVRE, Dec 30 —The Germans at Rouen captured on Saturday last another English collier and sunk it

MADRID, Dec 30.—Prim is better His wounds show no serious symptoms

VERSAILLES, Dec 30 —The authorities accuse the French of paying 750 francs to each officer escaping captivity by breaking his parole

ARRAS, Dec 30 —It is said the German soldiery, on the march, frequently declare they are tired of the war

A dispatch from Carlsruhe, of the 30th, says an attack will be made immediately by the Prussians, with shot and shell, upon Belville, Villette and St. Antoine Nothing will be done by the Army of Loire for a fortnight. Reinforcements to the number of 150,000 men, are arriving to join it.

Affairs at Madrid

NEW YORK, Dec. 30 —A Herald cable dispatch dated Madrid, the 29th, says To-day information is obtained from the papers seized, which shows that the conspiracy was of an extensive character. The members were sworn to exterminate all public enemies of the Republic It is believed the murder of Prim was opposed by some on the ground that nothing should be attempted until the arrival of the Duke of Aosta but the advocates of immediate action prevailed Lots were drawn for the selection of three persons to undertake the killing of Prim It is said the Ministry of War is in possession of proof of identification of the actual assassins but have not yet succeeded in making arrests. It is certain the conspiracy is of the most extensive character, and the plots were well laid To-day there were some expressions of indignation at the attempted crime, but in general a sullen indifference is evinced by the masses of the population Great activity is evident in the War office

The Ministry contemplate changing the programme for a route by which the newly elected King will make his entry into Madrid This is to be done, in view of the attempt on the life of Prim, in order to baffle the conspirators Prim has been congratulated on his escape by the foreign Ministers

MADRID, Dec 30 —Several battalions of the National Guards, recruited in the Republican quarters of Madrid, refuse to attend the review, to be held on Sunday, in honor of the new King Serious disturbances are apprehended The squadron from Italy, bearing the future King of Spain, was anchored yesterday off Barcelona, and will reach Carthagena to day It is believed the Government will draw the bill suspending the constitutional guarantees The disarmament of the Republican battalions of the National Guard has commenced The city is tranquil

German Unification

BERLIN Dec 30 —The Federal treaties with Baden, Hesse and Wurtemburg have been ratified The upper Chamber of the Bavarian Diet passed the treaty by nearly a unanimous vote

Speculations about the London Conference

LONDON, Dec 30 —Much speculation is indulged in as to what may be the action of the approaching Congress on the Black Sea question It is believed that the preliminary difficulties to be encountered will be hard to overcome as it is almost certain that the Russian representative at the beginning of the proceedings will announce formally, as the fixed policy of his Government that the abrogation of the clause in the treaty of Paris regarding the armament of Russian vessels on the Black Sea is already an accomplished fact by the will of the Emperor of Russia, who cannot allow such abrogation to be an open question On the other hand, many suppose from Bismarck's last diplomatic note published in the Herald, that Prussia will refuse to meet the accredited representatives of the French Government, which commissions officers who have broken their parole Another difficulty is anticipated from the protests against the meeting on the part of Prussia and Russia, unless it is held on the understanding that all matters foreign to the Paris treaty shall be excluded The belief is general that the meeting will be delayed long beyond the appointed day

The Conference Indefinitely Postponed

LONDON, Dec 30—Evening —The conference on the Eastern question is indefinitely postponed on account of the refusal of France to take part the absence of one of the signers to the treaty of Paris rendering the meeting useless

A World's special dated London, Dec 30 says it is officially announced that Bismarck was asked by Washburne whether Favre could have a safe conduct to the conference and Bismarck objected

Mr Fortescue has been appointed President of the Board of Trade, and Marquis Hartington Secretary for Ireland. Other Cabinet changes are contemplated

EASTERN STATES

Schenck on our Relations with England

NEW YORK, Dec 31 —The following report is published of Schenck in the interview yesterday In regard to the fishery question he said My impression is that Great Britain is not half so difficult to deal with, in relation to fisheries, as the Canadians themselves. I have reason to believe that the conduct of the latter is not stimulated by instructions from the mother country, but on the contrary causes much concern to Great Britain herself Of course England will not entirely disavow and rebuke the unfriendly manifestations of the provinces towards the people of this country but my opinion is that England feels annoyed at the conduct of the Canadians, and will probably send out a delegate to the Government of the Dominion with instructions to put a curb on their arrogance and to bring them to a sense of the duty they owe the people of the United States I believe that if England could without sacrifice of her traditional pride, give up her colonies in America, she would most willingly do so If Canada would sever her connections with the mother country and declare herself an independent State, the British Government would raise no objection to such an arrangement The trouble is that the Canadians stick too closely and prefer to be an English province England's interests are in the East Her possessions in that quarter are the means by which she can check ambitious designs of other Powers It is my opinion that in the natural course of events Canada will relapse into our Union. He thinks that there will be something more than dollars and cents required in the settlement of the Alabama claims—such as the opening of the St Lawrence and the same rights for American fishermen as for Canadian I could not exactly tell in what form our claims are to be presented, and what terms they will enforce, but money alone will not suffice as compensation due the United States for damages sustained by fitting out rebel cruisers during the late war" said the General. "We have had enough of feasting and toasting, we want some decided action on the matter, and shall certainly try to get all the money we can I can say that the fishery question will be drawn into the discussion along with the Alabama claims We shall try to obtain a settlement of all these questions now and forever. He remarked that he had received no instructions yet, but had no doubt they will leave him a very fair margin for his own discretion

The San Domingo Matter

WASHINGTON, Dec 30 —The President expresses confidence in the passage of the San Domingo resolutions by the House It is said the President has already decided upon the names of the Commissioners, but declines to give them to the public at present

Vessel Missing

NEW YORK, Dec 31 —Great fears are entertained of the safety of the ship Be ft Sure, which sailed from Leith for New York, September 30th laden with gas coal She was commanded by Capt Robert Scott, and besides her crew had about twenty passengers

UTAH

CORINNE, Dec 31 —A Fish Creek telegram says a stage station 75 miles south was burned last night Nine horses, including the race horse Missouri Roan, thirty tons of hay and four sets of harness were burned.

NEVADA.

A County Treasurer Missing

HAMILTON Dec 31 —Considerable excitement exists here over the mysterious disappearance of Lewis Cook, Treasurer of White Pine county He left here ten days since with the intention of visiting San Francisco and Austin since which time nothing has been heard of him Official investigation show the treasury to be short about $24,000 A number of our most responsible business men are on his bonds for $50 000 Cook's store was attached yesterday by the Receiver of the National Bank of Nevada, for $7,700.

Wells, Fargo & Co's shipments of bullion during December, were as follows To the East 116 bars valued at $138 587 31 to San Francisco 9 bars, valued at $19 999 30 Total, $158 586 61

CUBA.

Horrible Massacre

HAVANA, Dec 30 —Advices from Santiago de Cuba, dated the 23d, state that on the 18th 800 insurgents, including 40 negresses armed with cutlasses, sacked and burned Socapa, a fishing village, distant five miles from this city, and opposite the Moro fortress at the mouth of the harbor They forced a small detachment of defenders to retire, and killed nine persons including two women, then decamped, after taking every thing from the village The Moro fired at the party, but ineffectually, as there were no boats to carry troops over Those which were sent to intercept the rebels arrived too late On entering the village they found the corpses of the victims, partly baked and in a horrible condition

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec 31 —The steamer Japan, for China, carried away 160 barrels of pork and a number of beef cattle, which she will land at Midway Island, as supplies for the men employed there

The U. S steamer Saginaw having left Honolulu four months since for Midway Island, and thence for San Francisco, is so much overdue that great fears are entertained for her, and the Japan will endeavor to find out what has become of her It is conjectured that she may be lost or detained at Midway Island by scurvy breaking out in her crew or on shore

An affray occurred at the Occidental Hotel, to day, in which one boarder slashed another across the face with a knife The cause of this was a difference of opinion concerning a lady courted by both parties

In the case of the Oxford Melodeon proprietors and employees, it was dismissed by Judge Sawyer in the Police Court last week Judge Stanley decided on a statement of the case as agreed on by the defence, that they were all guilty both of an invasion and an infraction of the law, and held them all to answer, the proprietors' bail being fixed at $1,000 each, and the employees at $200 each This decision will close all the melodeons in town, if the police enforce the law

The weather is much warmer

The French citizens yesterday sent one hundred thousand francs to Gambetta as a New Year's present in aid of the cause of France and received to-day a reply returning thanks in most eloquent language from Gambetta

To-day Dennis Gunn, a moulder, aged 25 years, a young man of irreproachable character received an anonymous letter, stating that E Murphy, a painter, who has had several wives and mistresses, one of the former now having a suit for divorce pending against him, had debauched Gunn's sister He consulted with his father, and the two confronted the girl who is under sixteen years of age, and she acknowledged her shame Young Gunn immediately started out on the street and met Murphy at the corner of St Mary's Place and Pine streets, and shot him through the head The homicide was committed almost in front of Murphy's house and Mrs Murphy came out and threw herself frantically on the body Gunn gave himself up to a citizen to whom he handed his pistol, and immediately started for the calaboose Public opinion fully exonerates him Murphy is still breathing, but has not spoken There is no chance for his recovery Any amount of bail can be obtained for Gunn

The total number of deaths this week in San Francisco is 51

C Oppenheimer, who is already in jail, was booked to day on three more charges for forgery

The police commenced arresting Chinamen to day for carrying baskets on poles on the sidewalks In some cases they were brutally treated and all appeared wholly ignorant of the cause of their arrest

The ship Ocean Express, supposed to be on her way from Bahia to this port, has been ordered to Boston for repairs

Fire at Truckee

TRUCKEE (Cal) Dec 31 —The building owned by Robert Boll was totally destroyed by fire at 9 o'clock last night, together with a barn and about $2 000 worth of clothing, jewelry and furniture No insurance. The building adjoining, owned by J C McLarnahan, was also destroyed

Over 5 000 rifle shots were fired by the Prussians at a balloon which left Paris on November 24th The passengers retaliated—not by throwing hand grenades, as they should have done—but by tossing at the enemy a number of copies of the Journal Officiel de la Republique

Germany, it is stated in a Berlin mail telegram, is averse to a Congress on the Black Sea question, and would decline any discussion of her home affairs or of the present military situation

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

TESTING HER INNOCENCE —The following touching scene recently occurred in a Parisian court of justice

A poor pale wan seamstress was arraigned for theft She appeared at the bar with a boy eleven or twelve months old in her arms, her child She went to get some work one day and stole three coins of 10 francs each The money was missed soon after she left her employer and a servant was sent to her room to claim it The servant found her about to quit the rooms with the three gold coins in her hand She said to the servant I was going to carry them back to you " Nevertheless she was carried to the Commissioner of Police and he ordered her to be sent before the police for trial

She was too poor to engage a lawyer and when asked by the Judge what she had to say for herself she answered "The day I went to my employer's I carried my child with me It was in my arms as it is now, I was not paying attention to it There were several other gold coins on the mantle piece and unknown to me it stretched out its little hands and seized the three pieces, which I did not observe until I got home I at once put on my bonnet, and was going back to my employer to return them when I was arrested This is the solemn truth as I hope for heaven's mercy

The court could not believe this story They upbraided the mother for her impudence in endeavoring to palm off such a manifest lie for the truth They besought her for her own sake, to retract so absurd a tale for it could be of no effect but oblige the court to sentence her to a much severer punishment than they were disposed to inflict upon one so young, evidently steeped so deep in poverty

These appeals had no effect, except in strengthening the poor mother's pertinacious adherence to her original story As this firmness was sustained by that look of innocence which the most adroit criminal can never counterfeit the court were at some loss to discover what decision justice demanded. To relieve their embarrassment one of the Judges proposed to renew the scene described by the mother The gold coins were placed on the clerk's table The mother was requested to assume the position in which she said she stood at her employer's house There was then a breathing in the court The baby soon discovered the bright coin, eyed it for a moment, smiled and then stretched forth its tiny hands and clutched them in its fingers with a miser's eagerness The mother was acquitted

MONDAY MORNING, JANUARY 2, 1871.

The Northern Pacific Railroad Company.

We are informed that Judge Rice, the Vice President of this Company, who has been in this city and on the line of the road for the last few weeks, has completed arrangements for the early construction of that part of the road lying between this city and Puget Sound. Twenty-five miles at least of this division of the road will be completed and in running order by the first of July next, and the balance at an early day thereafter.

For this purpose the iron rails for the first twenty-five miles have been shipped at New York and are now on the way to this river, and a number of men are already at work on the line clearing off the timber and preparing for the graders, who are to follow in heavy force immediately.

Thus has been commenced in good earnest at our own doors one of the most important enterprises ever initiated in this or any other country, an enterprise which opens to our immediate view the great future of the Northwest. It is the opinion of the experienced gentlemen who have this vast project in hand that a richer field for commercial enterprise, and one promising greater advantages, does not exist.

By the construction of this link in the line, for which arrangements have been made, the waters of the Columbia river, now actually navigated by steam for a distance of more than five hundred miles, and reaching from the Pacific ocean to the base of the Rocky mountains, together with the rich valley of the Wallamet, in which a railroad of nearly one hundred [illegible] is now in successful operation, [illegible] with Puget Sound and with [illegible] navigable waters reaching [illegible] distance of more than twelve hundred miles and presenting a greater field [for] commerce and immigration, and a field more desirable for the tourist than any other [system] of inland waters in the world.

We also understand that this company have now under construction their line of road between Lake Superior and the Red River of the North, and a line from St. Cloud to Pembina. These last named lines, in connection with the St. Paul and Pacific road and its branches recently purchased by the company, [illegible] now in operation will constitute a system of roads under the management of this company east of the mountains, of which at least [illegible] will be in full operation early next [illegible], with the prospect of [illegible] over the mountains and making our [illegible] connection with [illegible] navigation on this side, thus uniting ocean with ocean and opening to settlement along nearly the whole route one of the richest portions of the continent.

It is fortunate that the destinies of this great enterprise have fallen into the hands of the energetic men who now control it, and who, with the celebrated firm of Jay Cooke & [illegible] their financial agents cannot fail to accomplish results that must be at once creditable to themselves and of the greatest benefit to the country.

The most cordial good will and harmony exists, as we are assured, between this company and those managing the railroads in Oregon and also with the Oregon Steam Navigation Company. The true interest of all is [illegible] of the country.

Judge Rice and his friends, Mr. Canfield, Director in the Company, and Gov. Goodrich took passage by steamer last week for San Francisco and the East. The general charge of the business of the Company for the present is left in the hands of Gen. J. W. Sprague, a gentleman of great energy of character and much experience in railroad matters.

Annexation of San Domingo.

The President has gained a triumph in the Senate on his San Domingo policy, and the indications are that it is believed he will gain a similar triumph in the House. A joint resolution for the appointment of a Committee to proceed to San Domingo to make investigations bearing on the annexation of that territory passed the Senate on the morning of the 22d [illegible] by a large majority. [illegible] the vote on the resolution there was an [illegible] debate which lasted all night. The Democratic Senators present, without exception, opposed the resolution, and were aided by Mr. Sumner. At seven o'clock A. M., a vote was reached, and the resolution was carried by a very large majority, only nine Senators voting against it.

The President in his late message presented powerful reasons for the acquisition of San Domingo. We have been endeavoring [illegible] West Indies [illegible] have the opportunity we [illegible] It was from West India [illegible] that blockade runners and [illegible] swarmed during the rebellion, and it was there that Great Britain [illegible] attacks on us in the last war. The possession of San Domingo would enable us to command all the [illegible] and, as the President expresses [illegible] prevent an enemy from again possessing himself of a rendezvous on our [illegible] The acquisition of territory has never been rejected by the United States when it could be obtained at a good offer; and among the most popular measures of preceding Presidents have been similar projects for enlarging our domain and putting the nation in possession of valuable neighboring territory.

It is noticeable, however, that the Democratic party in this case opposes territorial extension. This is done in a sheer spirit of opposition; not for any valid reason. Any measure that the present Administration proposes, no matter how meritorious it may be, must meet the opposition of the Democratic party, for that party has now policy but to oppose. We remember, however, that only a few years ago it was ready to undertake a war with Spain, a war that could have had no provocation or excuse, to wrest Cuba from that nation. That, however, was when the slaveholding interest was dominating the country. The acquisition of Cuba by any means however unjust or violent, was demanded then by the Democratic party, in order to give the slaveholding interest still greater weight in the national councils. And so if it were possible now to perpetuate slavery in San Domingo, we should see Democratic politicians laboring with all their might for the annexation of that island.

The conference of the Great Powers that was appointed to take place at London will not be held. The whole project appears to have fallen through. Meanwhile Russia refuses to abate a jot of her demands on the Black Sea question, and is disregarding totally the treaty of Paris. What will Great Britain do next? The truth is that since France is overthrown Russia cannot be kept back and England now sees it.

Decrease of the Chinese Element.

The Bulletin (San Francisco) shows that the Chinese element in that city and throughout California is decreasing very considerably. We quote a portion of the Bulletin's article:

> The last steamer from China brought only 69 Chinese. For some time past the departures of these people from this port have been more than the arrivals. The number resident in this city is estimated to be less by 2,000 than it was a year ago; and the number in the whole State is probably not over 37,000, whereas a year or two ago it was from 40,000 to 50,000. It is probable that there will be no material increase in our Chinese population hereafter. The grand attraction of the surface mines is almost completely gone, the diggings remaining which Chinese can work being few and poor. A considerable reduction in wages led to the employment of whites in many instances where Chinese had been employed before. Women and children found situations in many factories to the exclusion of Chinese. In addition to all these causes the growing antipathy to the race, and the hard treatment to which it has often been subjected, tended to discourage their coming, and caused the Chinese companies to issue an address advising their countrymen at home to stay there. Congress and the Federal authorities, furthermore, have shown a disposition to enforce strictly the laws against the cooliesism and labor contracts made abroad. Under the operation of all these causes, we may look for a material abatement of Chinese immigration while the constant tendency to diffusion will operate to prevent any undue accumulation at one point.

Here, indeed, is a sad state of things for Democratic politicians and demagogues. What, for instance, can such a little demagogue as Gov. Grover do on the stump hereafter, with facts like the above to confute and confound him? It will be remembered that the whole burden of his speeches, when a candidate for his present office, was the Chinaman. We were to be overrun with myriads of them. Some distinguished authorities put the number who were to make a descent upon this country at one hundred millions! And they were to be here at once, unless the "Radicals" were at once driven from power throughout the United States. We reckon that harangues of this description will no longer tickle the ears of even the lowest and stupidest of the groundlings. The "great Chinese question," like all the rest of the so-called "eternal principles of the Democratic party," has had its day. It is gone, and forever.

Farms for the Boys.

A contemporary says that the farmers of Polk and Yamhill counties "have been looking to the event of the vacation of the Grand Ronde Reservation with anxiety, as furnishing them a chance to secure for their sons valuable farms." The sons ought to have farms, certainly; but why don't the fathers divide the great "sections" of land they now have among the sons, and give the latter a chance? Not one acre in five of the great original donation claims of Oregon is yet in cultivation, and the great size of these tracts is, and always has been a drawback to the State and an impediment to its prosperity. And now it is said that the holders of these lands don't want to divide them even among their own sons, but want to get additional "sections" for the sons to occupy. This policy would continue indefinitely the greatest evil that Oregon has ever labored under. Almost as well let the Indians retain the reservation lands. It is indispensable to the prosperity of the State that the great bodies of land secured under the old donation law be broken up into smaller proprietorships; and this can best be done by the fathers sharing the land among the sons and setting the latter to work for themselves. A subdivision of these vast donation claims is about as important to Oregon as railroads are. There are men in Oregon who have each held a square mile of the most excellent land for the space of twenty-five years, without cultivating a twentieth part of it. We can't see that this is much better than the Indian reservation system, where a tribe holds a vast extent of land, making little or no use of it, and keeping out white settlers who would soon cover it with well improved farms. Oregon boys all ought to have farms, and, as a general thing, their fathers have land enough to give them or sell them farms, and plenty to spare. There is no subject of more real importance to the State than that herein considered. Until these large proprietorships are broken up, either by sale or descent to heirs, the growth of the State in wealth and population will necessarily be slow.

Congressman Smith's bill, as we see by a copy which has reached us, proposes to prevent any further violation of the school fund of this State, but to confine it to the lock and dam swindling transaction. That is to say, the "ring" with which Congressman Smith is associated and whose work he is ready always to do, see little chance of making another haul out of the fund for their own benefit, since they foresee that many others may claim a share next time and take it too, and leave them out. Fearing that those who were "euchered" out of their part of the plunder at the last session by the machinations of the "ring" may combine in the next Legislature and take it all, the "ring" is now willing, it seems, to shut down, keep what they have already and allow no further robberies. This is what Mr. Smith's bill looks like. We commend this situation to the careful study of the Democratic counties east of the mountains, which expected a distributive share of the proceeds of the school lands. The "ring" that controlled the last Legislature of this State is acting just like the authors of the big lottery in San Francisco have acted. They had their lottery and made a big thing out of it; but now they want to put a stop to the business everywhere else. So they pounce down in a terrific manner on every little lottery that peeps up its head in California. Just so with the ring of the Oregon school fund grabbers. They have realized a big thing, and now don't want to leave a chance for others to get any. We trust that those who co-operated with the "ring" and helped them to their booty, but who got chiseled out of their share by the sharp practice of the "ring," will be able to appreciate the situation.

It is now apparent to everybody that a railroad coming from Puget Sound is destined soon to meet a railroad or railroads traversing the Wallamet valley. Wherever on either of these rivers (the Columbia or Wallamet) these railroads unite, there will be a great entrepot of trade, and in a very few years a metropolitan city. Portland must be that point. But she must be prepared to make exertions for it commensurate with the great advantages to be realized. She must not be asleep. It may soon be time for her to act. They do better who make an effort to achieve greatness than those who sit down to wait, in the belief that greatness may possibly be thrust upon them.

The construction of a west side railroad will be a material help in attracting the Northern Pacific here. Citizens interested in the future of Portland should therefore subscribe at once the sum necessary to secure the west side road. Portland must keep ahead, as she has done heretofore. But to enable her to fully command the future situation there is necessity for wise and timely action.

OREGON.

The Baptists are erecting a new church at Oregon City.

The track is laid on the railroad beyond Albany as far as Oak Creek.

During the past six months fifty marriage licenses have been issued in Marion county.

Choice lots of wheat, in sacks, have exchanged hands at Albany at ninety cents per bushel,—an advance.

The milling company at Springfield, Lane county, will saw a large quantity of lumber, to be seasoned next summer.

A correspondent at Lebanon writes: "The mines recently discovered in the forks of the Santiam, six miles east of Lebanon, prospect well, and will, no doubt, prove a great source of wealth to the State, and big thing to the company."

J. J. Murphy, Salem agent for Stitzel & Upton of Portland, has negotiated the sale of 217 acres of the Swegle farm and improvements, owned by Dr. Jackson, now in Missouri, for $7,000 gold coin. It is three miles from Salem. There is 152 acres prairie, and 65 acres of timber land. The purchaser is Mr. Jacob Ogle, lately from Illinois.

WASHINGTON FACT AND GOSSIP.

Census returns of several districts of New York, under the new enumeration are received. So far as heard from, there is very little difference between the present and previous census, there being a falling off of about fifty in twelve districts.

Senator elect Vance, of North Carolina, has written a letter in reply to certain accusations against him, which excites much comment. He declares he acquiesces in and will maintain all the legitimate results of the war, and that he earnestly desires the unity and perpetuity of the whole country, its prosperity and honor.

F. O. Boyd, representing numerous Western distilleries, had an interview with the Secretary of the Treasury and Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue and others, the object being to procure the passage of a law allowing the transportation of spirits in bond from the West to the seaboard cities. The Secretary said there would be no unnecessary obstacles placed in the way of the exportation of surplus products, but the Departments would not sanction any bill unless properly guarded so as to prevent fraud. The subject, after the holidays, will be brought before the Committee of Ways and Means.

The Chicago Tribune's Washington special says Gen. Thomas Osborn, of Chicago, is being strongly urged by Gen. Butler, for Governor of Utah, and that Gen. Brayman, of Springfield, is in Washington looking after some appointment, but it does not appear that the President is disposed to make any change unless Cullom will accept.

From Portland to San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 23, 1870.

The steamship California, Captain Gregory, commander, was advertised to sail from the Portland docks on the 17th instant, at 3 P. M. Being anxious to accommodate ourselves to circumstances, a number of us had assembled in the cabin by the appointed time, after having taken leave of our friends, who hastened on shore, lest they might be discovered when the vessel should be well under way, minus the necessary tickets or "tin," and thereby run the gauntlet of the steward's displeasure and be unceremoniously ejected from the steamer at St. Helens (an indignity which, by the way, one presuming but unfortunate cabin passenger uselessly objected to, after having had a free ride to that locality with two meals and a night's lodging as perquisites).

We waited, and shivered, and chatted, and wondered why we were detained, until seven o'clock, when we gave Portland a parting salute, steamed down the Wallamet for a mile or so and anchored. Daylight came at last and we started, the steamer scratching gravel in the river bed for an hour or two in her efforts to deepen the channel, when her attempts proving fruitless, she gave it up and cast anchor for a seemingly interminable season, waiting for the tide.

At 9 o'clock we were off again, gliding down through the wealth of wooded scenery so often described by travelers, so often seen, and yet so new and grand and glorious, every time your eyes behold it, that you feel that half has never yet been told.

Astoria at 8 P. M., where we anchored until daylight. Everybody knows Astoria. She's had her growth for half a century. Nevertheless Arrigoni keeps a capital hotel in Astoria, and if everybody else consumes his oysters as our party did, he certainly does a thriving business in that line at least.

"Lights out in your rooms at ten o'clock!" was the order on ship board, and the lady passengers obeyed the mandate. By 4 A. M. we were off again. I had been kept awake for several hours during the night by a worthy, anxious mother, whose curly-headed little four-year old had grown croupy and feverish. The mother came to my room at 2 o'clock in an agony of fear, quite out of proportion to the cause of her alarm, and tremulously asked what should be done? "Call our bachelor friend," I yawningly suggested. "What's his name, and where's his stateroom?" "His name is Muggins, and his stateroom must be near yours," I replied, trying to lose myself in sleep again.

The bachelor friend in question had made himself ludicrously conspicuous the evening before, by vehement declarations of eternal celibacy.

We told him we knew he had been jilted in his young days, which he endeavored to deny, but a sprightly young widow present arrived at the truth through a labyrinth of cross-questionings, which would have done great honor to our distinguished legal friend, Alanson Smith.

The aid of the bachelor friend proved very valuable to the alarmed mater-familias, and by daylight the child was secure in a sound sleep with the danger over, and our bachelor friend was laughingly voted a disagreeable necessity.

We weighed anchor at day dawn, and I went to sleep, having previously arrayed myself in a seedy wrapper and fixtures to correspond, expecting to be so disgustingly sea sick as to render any other habiliments uncomfortable. At half past eight I awoke, and supposing we would soon reach the bar, I concluded to creep out in my limp wrapper and have a cup of coffee. To my surprise the table was crowded, the steamer was steady and nobody was sea-sick. "How long before we shall reach the bar?" I asked a gentleman who had my place at the table, as I stood behind his chair, hungry and expectant. "Over the bar an hour ago, ma'am," said a waiter, holding his tray aloft as he crowded past me. Sure enough, we were over the Columbia bar and out in the wide old ocean. The worst of the voyage was over.

The sea was smooth as a lake all the way down the coast, and for the first in the history of most of us, we had a pleasant voyage from Portland to San Francisco.

I meant to write you concerning our arrival at midnight; how our jolly and gentlemanly, careful and capable Captain made two unsuccessful attempts to land the ship at the dock; and how we at last brought up along-side the Oriflamme; how we followed guides through labyrinths of winding passages, over slippery boards and into inconceivable byways, and at last through the steerage hatchway—or whatever they call it—up a rope ladder, down a gangway onto the Oriflamme decks, and across her stern or bow—for the life of me I couldn't tell which—down another gangway into the wharf among the coaches and confusion; how we at last found ourselves whirling at a rapid rate through the light but silent streets to the distant hotel—but was going to say I hadn't time, and here it is, already written.

MRS. A. J. DUNIWAY.

The total vote in Nevada at the late election was 13,348. The voting was very irregular. Seven Democrats on the State ticket were elected by majorities ranging from 28 to 1,052, and six Republicans by majorities ranging from 59 to 797. The issue was not a political one, and few "straight tickets" were voted. The Republicans have both branches of the Legislature.

Cost of Living.

[From the San Francisco Commercial Herald.]

We have frequently directed the attention of our readers to the remarkable difference in the cost of living between San Francisco and Atlantic cities. Before us lie several bills of fare of well known restaurants in Boston, New York and San Francisco, from which we cull the following salient points:

	BOSTON.	SAN FRANCISCO.
Lamb chop with peas	$1 00	25 cents
Broiled ham and eggs	65	20
Rump steak	50	15
Tenderloin steak	1 00	20
Large porter-house steak	1 50	25
Fillet of beef with olives	1 15	31½
Fillet of beef with truffles	1 40	50
Pork steak	60	15
Mallard duck	1 50	50
Venison steak	75	25
Roast beef	50	15
Boiled tongue	50	15
Boiled ham	40	15
Roast turkey	75	25
Pressed beef	40	15

We might go on through the whole bill of fare, which shows corresponding differences in price for every article on the list—to the extent of from 50 to 150 per cent. It must also be remembered that in Boston and New York, a separate charge is made for every article placed on the table, except bread, and at the Hoffman and several other houses in the latter city an additional impost of twenty-five cents per meal is levied for bread. In this city, one can enter any respectable and well kept restaurant, where the viands are admirably cooked, of the choicest quality and nicely served, and obtain a fine tenderloin or porter-house steak, with two kinds of potatoes, pickles, green tomatoes, green corn, string beans or peas, and all the bread and butter one requires, for the moderate charge of from 25 to 37½ cents. In New York or Boston, the same meal would cost from two to three dollars. In San Francisco, any of the following named dishes, with tea, coffee, wine, beer, pudding, pie, or soup can be had, of excellent quality, for fifteen cents, viz: Roast or boiled mutton, veal pot-pie, salmon or sea-bass, beefsteak pie, stewed tripe, breast of lamb (breaded), beef a la mode, stewed kidneys, etc., etc. In addition to this the diner can obtain a plate of meat—say roast beef, turkey, chicken, venison or other kind—together with any two of the before-mentioned dishes, for twenty-five cents; and we guarantee that they will be of equally fine quality, as well cooked and nicely served, as in any of the restaurants of New York or Boston. Now let us consider the question of wages paid to skilled mechanics and laboring men. Tabulated statements made up in the Bureau of Statistics prove that all classes who depend for subsistence on the labor of their hands earn from 40 to 75 per cent. more in San Francisco than in either of the Eastern cities. In some special instances the average is over 90 per cent. in our favor, and this, with the cheapness of living, gives them very superior advantages. A laboring man can fare as sumptuously here for thirty cents as a merchant or banker can in New York or Boston for two or even three dollars. The returns from our savings and loan institutions for the first half of 1870 show that 37,136 depositors held nearly $30,000,000, gold, to their credit in these banks. Nothing approximating to this exists in any other portion of the world. In Massachusetts, where the laboring classes stand financially better than elsewhere at the East, the amount due to each depositor in savings banks is $312, currency, and in San Francisco it is $802, gold—making a difference of $490, gold, in favor of the San Francisco depositor, without reducing the Massachusetts deposits to a gold basis. As compared with New York the difference is even more striking, the depositors in this city owning $505 more per capita than those of New York, where the average is $297, currency, to each depositor. There is no getting behind these figures; they speak for themselves, and furnish the most unanswerable argument in favor of immigration.

MONDAY MORNING, JANUARY 2, 1871.

THE CITY.

THE NEW CITY OF KALAMA.—The Northern Pacific Railroad Company not long since purchased five hundred acres of land on the north bank of the Columbia river, about two miles below Kalama rock, upon which they are laying out a new town to be called Kalama, after the Indian name of a small stream which puts into the Columbia near by. A party of topographical engineers, under the supervision of Col. Tilton, Division Engineer, is now making a preliminary survey of the tract, with a view to laying out streets, blocks, lots, etc. At this place the company will erect docks, depots and warehouses, and will make it for the present the headquarters of their engineering and construction department. The town site is situated upon the bottom land of the Columbia, which is here about a mile wide, and which gradually rises to a plateau toward the mountain range. The springs which everywhere bubble out of the mountain side, create several small streams which run through the town, affording abundance of pure water to the prospective city. The river in front is deep enough for vessels of any draught. Altogether the description we got of it, the place seems admirably adapted for a town site; the declared intention of the company to make it the depot for the line between Puget Sound and the Columbia river, elevates it at once into importance. For the purpose of the company to connect the Columbia and Puget Sound section with the line at some point on the Sound, and to use the Columbia river as the highway by which, for the present (probably till the overland line shall be built) to connect with the interior. Thus, for all practical purposes, Kalama will be the terminus of not only the railroad, but one or more lines of steamers and sailing vessels. A large working party is already at work on the first twenty-five mile section leading from Kalama toward the Sound, and arrangements have been made for the beginning of active operations on a large scale as early as practicable in the spring. Five thousand tons of rails have already been shipped from New York to be landed at Kalama, and it is expected that the first section will be completed by the 4th of July, 1871. With these facts in view, it is not at all surprising that a lively interest prevails among the people of the Cowlitz valley, and that great numbers are only impatiently waiting for the time when they may invest in the real estate of the new town.

FIREMEN'S RECEPTION.—Last Saturday night Multnomah Company No. 2 received their friends at their engine house, and an ample collation was spread, to which the visitors did full justice. Wine flowed freely, toasts were given in which representatives of the press in attendance and several neat little speeches were made. Engineer Holman made one of his little speeches in which he complimented the Multnomah's on their efficiency as firemen as well as their hospitality as hosts. Assistant Engineer Hassel made a very neat address, and in response to the most deafening calls "Uncle Jacob" responded with a perfect gem of a speech. We had no shorthand reporter, but it was something like this: "Chentlemen and brudder fremens: I don't vas a speech maker like dot lawyer vot belongs to Number Von's howess, and called me 'Chentlemen of de chory,' but I yoost vant to say to return tanks for de hosbitality of dese Multnomahs dis evening. I vish you all a happy New Year, don't it? Ve vas so exceedingly as friendly to celebrate dis occasion and is brosperous according. I pean an Assistant Enchineer, and I pledge my vord dot de berformans of mine Jut as you yoost get it is yourselves. By all accounts der company is in a brosperous condition und der happy —don't it? Again I vish you a Happy New Year as de last van, und dot is all I got to say." The speech was greeted with a salvo of applause as he sat, and the festivities were continued till a late o'clock in the morning.

THE NEW STEAMER.—The O. S. N. Co's new steamboat, the Emma Hayward, will be launched to-day. She is to take the place of the old Cascade, recently broken up. Some of the city papers have spoken of the Dixie as being the old Cascade with some additions and repairs. This is incorrect. There is not an old stick of timber in the Dixie. Her hull is modeled after that of the old boat, but it is entirely new. Her cabin is similar to that of the Cascade and is provided with berths and other accommodations. She will go into the water at 10 o'clock this morning.

PASSENGERS FOR PORTLAND.—The N. P. T. Co.'s ship California sailed from San Francisco, on Thursday. The following is a list of her passengers: A S Pease, Rev A ... Wyld, R B Dutro, E N Hudson, Reed, Mrs. ..., I S A Calvin Saylor ... man, E Van Vleet, G G Wee, ..., P A Eddy and sister, H May, Miss Daviess, T M Sliott, G W ..., Sager, T B Beall, D Knabie, E ..., J McCreatty, J Myrick, ..., J T Doane and wife.

NOTICE.—L. S. Rosenbaum, one of the most extensive tobacco dealers, has removed his stocks into the spacious and new store recently vacated by Corbitt & Macleay, near the O. S. N. Co.'s wharf.

The heavy firms of H. W. Corbett & Co., and ..., importers and dealers in hardware, are consolidated under the firm name of Failing & Co. We learn that their adjoining premises, which are adjoining each other, will be thrown into one by the removal of the dividing walls.

A LIBRARY.—Messrs. Zisber & Holton of the Metropolitan Hotel, have a reading room connected with the office and bar room, in which they keep on file all the newspapers and a considerable number of books of a miscellaneous character. Recently they added to the collection three hundred and fifty volumes, making, altogether, a good and large library. This is a feature of hotel furnishing which cannot be too much commended.

THE RIVER.—The late thaw in the mountains has had a splendid effect upon the stage of water in the Willamette river. The rise within the past few days has been fully three feet, which will enable the boats to reach the winter "head of navigation," with full cargoes. We may now expect large arrivals of produce, stores of which have been long waiting at points beyond Albany.

FIERY BOMBS.—There were a few noisy fellows on our streets Saturday night, in celebration of the incoming year. One of our friends, who is heavy on statistics (not that one who is connected with the Police board), estimates that one hundred and ninety-two Chinese bombs were let off the old year as he went out the back way.

ODD FELLOWS' INSTALLATION.—The officers of Oregon Lodge No. 3, Oregon City, will be installed next Thursday evening, as follows: B..., N. G.; J. M. Fraser, V. G.; S. D. ..., Secretary; A. C. Bailey, P. S.; T. Charman, Treasurer; N. W. Randall, Wm. ... and A. J. Apperson.

UP THE RIVER.—The ice in the Columbia river has broken up, and the Oneonta will be despatched this morning to the Cascades, with the expectation that she will connect with the Dalles boat, and that passengers and freight will go through.

OLD YEAR OUT.—The city clock came to time at midnight, and ushered in January 1st, we are not clear whether by striking twelve, and it is now telling off the hours of 1871 with the most commendable regularity.

INSANE.—Dr. J. N. Poindexter, of Lane county, came down Friday evening with a patient for the Insane Asylum. On Saturday evening ..., of Marion county, was committed.

REAL ESTATE FIRM ENLARGED.—The old firm of Parrish & Atkinson, the pioneer real estate and collecting agents, has recently been enlarged by taking in Mr. Tyler Woodard, late of Monmouth.

PORTLAND LIBRARY.—We are requested to state that the Portland Library will be open from 10 o'clock A. M., and from 7 to 8 o'clock, P. M.

THE POST OFFICE TO-DAY.—The post office will be open to-day for delivery only from 8 to 9 o'clock A. M., and from 5 to 6 P. M.

VANCOUVER TRIPS RESUMED.—The steamers ... and Carrie are again making regular trips between this city and Vancouver.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Gov. Haight's deputy Governor made an official visit to the Asylum on Saturday.

On Saturday the railroad brought down seventy-five tons of flour, landed at Rock Island by the steamer Calliope.

The bark Tenax Proposita has completed her cargo of wheat for England, and will sail early this week.

The express messengers of Wells, Fargo & Co. arrived Saturday on their return, overland, from the Dalles.

The policemen of this city are be changed on their beats to day, by order of the Board of Police Commissioners.

The O. S. N. Co's steamer Josie McNear is undergoing repairs at the Company's boneyard.

Mr. Reed, Librarian, has presented the Library with a copy of "My School-boy Friends."

The lease of the ferry boat Portland to the Messrs. Douglass expired on Saturday, and Mr. Knott assumed control again.

The amount of fines collected in the Police Court during December was $590 77, of which the city treasury gets $480 77, and the county $110 00.

On Saturday the steamer Okanogan took a considerable quantity of freight for Kalama, the new railroad town on the Columbia.

The ship Montgomery Castle is expected to clear and sail to-day. She will have to be lightered over the bar.

The weather was again freezing last evening, and the "prognostix" of another close of navigation unpleasantly distinct.

The bark Ganges, with 625 tons wheat, will sail for Falmouth, England, on Tuesday.

Next Friday will be the Catholic feast of Epiphany, and masses will be said morning and evening.

AMUSEMENTS.

ORO FINO THEATER.—Mr. Bates in the character of Gaston, in the drama of The Iron Mask, Saturday evening, gave one of the best dramatic representations ever produced upon the stage in this city. Whether as the young man full of the passion of a first love and vague dreams of ambition; or as the reckless man of the world, an adventurer, without fear and without aim except to see the world; or as the prince and prisoner, the old, old man of the dungeon, the man of unconquerable will and almost superhuman endurance, he was truly and artistically dramatic; but in the last act he was so especially effective as to greatly move the entire audience. There was in the portrayal, the most undeniable display of genius and power. We have often seen Bates do this character, but never before better. Mrs. Bates' Marie was a fine personation, as was Mr. Vinson's St. Mars; but these and all the other characters are so subordinate to that of the Iron Mask, in all sense, that, however perfectly acted, they never seem great or to call for special remark. In the afterpiece—The Artful Dodge—Messrs. Vinson, Ellerton, Clinton and Miss Ingles, made fun enough to dry up all the tears called forth by the sufferings of the ill-fated Prince of the drama, to set everybody heartily to laughing, and to put them in the best possible humor for entry upon a "Happy New Year." To-night the splendid drama of Alice, the Forsaken.

SOCIAL HOP.—The members of Protection Engine Company No. 1, and their invited guests, will celebrate New Year, by a social hop at their engine house this evening.

EMANCIPATION CELEBRATION.—The colored people will celebrate the Emancipation Anniversary at Armory Hall to-night. They are to have speaking, tableaux, music and a supper.

THEATRICAL.—We learn that Mr. L. F. Beatty with a dramatic company, is going to Salem to open Reed's Opera House for the winter season.

The Pixley sisters are going to Walla Walla to give dramatic entertainments. We are not informed as to the talent they take with them.

NEW YEAR'S ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—Our friend Richardson never forgets the printers. Last night he sent in his ninth annual New Year's feast, for which we return our hearty acknowledgments. To wash this down, Messrs. Allsky & Heglo sent in two bottles of "Palma Christi." We drink your health, gentlemen, and wish you all a Happy New Year.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The annual meeting of the Portland Dray and Hack Company will be held at their office at 7 o'clock P. M., next Saturday.

FASHION NOTES.

Alaska sables are distressingly fashionable.

Laced boots are taking the place of buttoned.

Postilion waists are more in fashion than ever.

Chateline braids of hair are displacing chignons.

Open gauntlet sleeves are worn in street costumes.

The gipsy hat with a low crown is the hat of the season.

Passementerie and fringes will be generally adopted as the season advances.

Silk and velvet are used in almost equal proportions in the fabrication of ladies' dresses.

English calf-skin gloves of chalk slate color, long and two-buttoned, are now worn for demi-toilette.

Bows of cherry or garnet silk cut on the bias and fringed at the edge are more fashionable than ever.

THE people are all looking about for something extra nice for holiday dinners (and everybody has a holiday dinner). C. M. MARTIN is the man of the time, and is fully prepared for the emergency. For proof consult his splendid stock of Family Groceries, Fresh Vegetables, Butter and Eggs, Salt Fish, Chinook Salmon Bellies, Halibut Fins, Game of every description, all the Fruits of the season, Honey, and Nick-nacks too numerous to mention.

December is here, with her storms and her rain,
And it makes the folks of cold weather complain.
Hark ye, dear gentlemen, this need not be so,
You can all be kept warm, for O'NEIL & CO.
Can fit you so nicely, so snug and so warm,
With CLOTHES that are proof 'gainst the bitterest storm,
And they sell them so cheaply, that all who go there,
Unlike Flora McFlimsey, can find something to wear.

Thieves! KNAVES!! SWINDLERS!!!—These are mild terms with which to designate those mean contemptible adventurers who have been induced by the high reputation which Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has won, to put up and offer for sale a worthless imitation of this celebrated medicine. Remember that Dr. R. V. Pierce's private Stamp, which is the only positive Guarantee of Genuineness, should be upon every package. This private Stamp, issued by the U. S. Government expressly for stamping Dr. Pierce's medicines, has upon it his portrait, name and address, and the words, "U. S. Certificate of Genuineness." Don't get swindled by men calling themselves Dr. Sage; Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., is the only man now living that has the right and can make the original Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by druggists or sent by mail on receipt of sixty cents.

KNAPP, BURRELL & CO.,

Have REMOVED to their New Store

17 and 19 Front and 14 and 16 First Sts.,
corner of Ash—Five Blocks below
their Old Store,

WHERE THEY WILL BE HAPPY TO SEE ALL their old Customers or "any other man" wanting

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS

MILL FURNISHING GOODS, WOOD-WORKING
MACHINERY,

RUBBER AND LEATHER BELTING, FARM WAGONS, GRASS SEEDS, ETC., ETC.

The particular attention of the Farming Community is called to our recent importation of Improved MOLINE PLOWS, greatly superior to any other Moline Plow in the Market, notwithstanding a certain firm, somewhat noted for truth and veracity—"so-called"—persist in stating that they are "bogus," "California made," etc.

Don't fail to call and look at one of the MOLINE PLOW Co's LATEST MAKE; and we think you will conclude with a Yamhill Farmer; who, after "looking 'round" and hearing the old story about bogus Molines, etc., delivered himself thusly: "Well, Myers, I'll just chance a couple of those new plows, and if they are 'bogus,' as that gassy chap above here says, I'll be d—ned if I won't take bogus in mine every time."

Next month we expect another shipment of those justly celebrated BAIN WAGONS, (Have now only a few left of the last lot,) STILL FURTHER IMPROVED over all heretofore received. It is not presumption on our part to say that they are head and shoulders above any other Farm wagon in market, in point of material, workmanship and finish, having achieved a reputation throughout the West, and wherever introduced on the Pacific, second to no other wagon. Some of the first sold here—three years ago,—have never yet had a tire re-set, and our experience has enabled us to order many changes and improvements over the ordinary make of western wagons to meet the wants and requirements of this coast. We shall sell the BAIN WAGON at the lowest possible price for a first-class wagon, and WARRANT them such, and in this connection beg to caution purchasers not to confound them with "inferior makes" that others are, or may endeavor to sell on the strength of the established reputation of the Bain manufacture, particularly after having made repeated and persistent efforts (without avail) to purchase wagons of Mr. Bain for this market.

Correspondence solicited. Address,

THE GREAT EUROPEAN

EUREKA ALUMINUM GOLD WATCH COMPANY

Have appointed

J. F. WILLIAMS & CO., Jewelers,
561 Broadway, New York,
SOLE AGENTS FOR THE U. S.,

AND HAVE AUTHORIZED THEM TO SELL THEIR great EUREKA ALUMINUM GOLD WATCHES for Three Dollars, and to warrant each and every one to keep correct time for one year. This Watch we guarantee to be the best and cheapest time-keeper that is now in use in any part of the globe. The works are in double cases, Ladies' and Gents' size, and are beautifully chased. The cases are made of the metal now so widely known in Europe as Aluminum Gold. It has the exact color of Gold, which it always retains; it will stand the test of the strongest acids; no one can tell it from Gold only by weight, the Aluminum Gold being one-fourth lighter. The works are all made by machinery, the same as the well-known American Watch. We pack the Watch safely in a small box and send it by mail to any part of the United States on receipt of $3 50; fifty cents for packing and postage. A key is sent free with each Watch. Money should be sent by Postoffice Money Order or in a Registered Letter. Address all orders and communications to

Sale of Government Steamer "Newberne."

Office of Depot Quartermaster,

SAN FRANCISCO, December 7, 1870.

THE UNITED STATES STEAMER NEWberne, with all her gear, rigging, spars, sails, boats, cabin furniture and other appointments, will be offered for sale at public auction, at the office of the Depot Quartermaster, in San Francisco, on MONDAY, the 16th day of January, 1871.

The Newberne is a screw propeller of 943 tons, O. M., of 250 horse power, 36-inch cylinder and 36-inch stroke, 200 feet in length; was built of white oak, in Brooklyn, N. Y., in 1862; draws about 10 feet of water when loaded, and is thoroughly well found in every particular.

In April last, she received a new boiler and donkey pump with boiler attached, and was thoroughly overhauled.

TERMS—Cash, in gold coin of the United States; 20 per cent. to be paid on the day of sale, and the balance on the delivery of the vessel.

Further particulars may be obtained of the undersigned or at the office of Captain William B. Hughes, A. Q. M., San Francisco. C. G. SAWTELLE, Major

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, &c., attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his special study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz. Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove that [illegible] rily to him that the wares of his complaint by [illegible] of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those w[illegible] contemplate marriage who are suffering [illegible] many of those fearful maladies, should not forget the sac[illegible] responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument binding [illegible] radical and permanent cure [illegible] make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union

All communications strictly confidential.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearny street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 1,957. REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.

LAND DEPARTMENT

COMPANY.

SALEM, OREGON, October 22, 1870.

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT IS MADE FOR information of all concerned:

First—Congress has granted to the Company all alternate sections of the public lands designated by odd numbers within a distance of thirty miles on each side of the railroad, excepting lands to which a pre-emption or homestead claim had attached prior to the withdrawal by Government of the lands co-terminus with the first division of located line from East Portland to Jefferson, at 12 M February 16, 1870. The second division of located line from Jefferson to a point six miles south of Roseburg, May, 1870, and from the last named point to the California line, 1870.

Second—Persons who have valid pre-emption or homestead claims to any tract on an odd numbered section can purchase the same from the Railroad Company at the Government price of $1 25 per acre in greenbacks, and upon very favorable terms, if they so desire, by filing an abandonment of their claim in the U. S. Land Office, blanks for which will be furnished by the Land Agent of the Company. Such purchase from the Company has these advantages over a purchase from the Government: The party can have the land if necessary; he can sell the land or mortgage it; he is saved the payment of lawyers' or agents' fees, and expenses of witnesses to go to the Land Office to "prove up" his claim; he can get his title perfect in less time, and he can buy on credit at a low rate of interest

Third—No sales will be made by the Company until the land is listed over to it by the United States Land Commissioner and Secretary of the Interior.

Purchasers are thus assured that the title they obtain is perfect. I. R. MOORES,
